Description: Imma	culate Conception Church	is a large brick str	ucture with twin en	trance-towe gabled roof and f	lush gabled transepts.	The plan is that of	a latin cross. The	building is trimmed in sto	ne, the roof is covered w	ith red tiles, and t	he towers are crown	ed with Significance: Th	e Immaculate Conception Ch	nurch was constructe	d in 1922-23 by the	Leoville parish. It refl	ects the taste for romanes	sque-inspired church	design that has ha	d a long tradition among	Kansas Catholic parishes,	but in a manner qui	te specifically of	the 1920s.

DESCRIPTION:

metal-sheathed domes. The chief alterations have been the installation of new narthex doors and the repainting, reflooring of the interior.

The design and detailing is Romanesque in reference.

and the control of th

SIGNIFICANCE:

The concern for building such a large church despite the comparatively small size of the parish probably stemmed from the great importance attached by the congregation to the institution of the church as a unifying and stabilizing basis of Leoville's community, as much as from the fact that at the time circumstances of prosperity and population warranted provision of a relatively commodious facility.
